

Affordable Housing Factoids

1,300 units of subsidized housing have been lost since 1997. (Source: Fairfax County Redevelopment and Housing Authority)

Rent in Fairfax County has risen 59% since 1990. (Source: Fairfax County Rental Survey; 2003)

The average sales price for a single family home is $398,800. (Source: Sun Gazette; 2003)

The number of jobs in Fairfax County during the 1990's increased three times as fast as the supply of homes. (Source: Future Supply and Demand for the Greater Washington Area report, George Mason University; January 2003.)

In January 2003, there were nearly 2,000 homeless persons and 39% of them were children. (Source: Fairfax County Redevelopment and Housing Authority)

In 2003, Fairfax County helped produce nearly 470 units of affordable housing, but lost over 300 units. (Source: Fairfax County Redevelopment and Housing Authority)