

Three of every ten Long Beach Households live on less than $16,500 per year. <sup>1</sup>

These 25,000 families are most at risk for homelessness <sup>2</sup> and related health problems including death. <sup>3</sup>

Only 20% of the Long Beach Housing Trust Fund, will help these extremely low income families.

Not one dollar of the city's current affordable housing budget (from HOME and redevelopment housing set aside monies) is targeted to these families." <sup>4</sup>

[1] State of the Cities Data Systems: Comprehensive Housing Affordability Strategy (CHAS) Data. SOCDs CHAS Data for Long Beach, California. Source Tables: F5A, F5B, F5C, F5D.

The median household income for LA/LB is approximately $55,000 a year.

[2] City of Long Beach, Homeless Count/Survey: 2003

[3] Health Disparities Based on Socioeconomic Inequalities; Academic Medicine; Vol. 79, No. 12, Dec. 2004

[4] City of Long Beach Housing Action Plan

HOUSING LONG BEACH

(formerly Long Beach Housing Trust Fund Coalition Info: jbutler@drcinc.org)

Three of every ten Long Beach Households live on less than $16,500 per year. <sup>1</sup>

These 25,000 families are most at risk for homelessness <sup>2</sup> and related health problems including death. <sup>3</sup>

Only 20% of the Long Beach Housing Trust Fund, will help these extremely low income families.

Not one dollar of the city's current affordable housing budget (from HOME and redevelopment housing set aside monies) is targeted to these families.“ <sup>4</sup>

HOUSING LONG BEACH

(Formerly: Long Beach Housing Trust Fund Coalition. Info: jbutler@drcinc.org)

[1] State of the Cities Data Systems: Comprehensive Housing Affordability Strategy (CHAS) Data. SOCDS CHAS Data for Long Beach, California. Source Tables: F5A, F5B, F5C, F5D. The median household income for LA/LB is approximately $55,000 a year.

[2] City of Long Beach, Homeless Count/Survey: 2003

[3] Health Disparities Based on Socioeconomic Inequalities; Academic Medicine; Vol. 79, No. 12, Dec. 2004

[4] City of Long Beach Housing Action Plan